Tutoring Experience

For the past 15 years, I've guided students through IB, A-Level, and IGCSE English, helping them develop critical thinking and analytical skills. My focus has been on preparing students for rigorous exams while fostering a deep appreciation for literature and language.

In addition to secondary education, I have also supported students with their university applications, helping them write compelling personal statements and application essays for top universities. Many of my students have gone on to pursue degrees in humanities and social sciences at prestigious institutions.
