Tutoring Experience

For the past decade, I've worked closely with IB students on their Extended Essays, ensuring they develop strong research skills and articulate their arguments clearly. My students have successfully completed essays in English, history, and more, consistently earning high marks and gaining admission to top universities.

In addition to the IB curriculum, I've helped A-Level and IGCSE students enhance their essay writing and literary analysis skills. My tailored approach ensures each student's individual needs are met, leading to academic success in coursework and exams.
